COUNTY HONORS DEDICATED VOLUNTEERS

Dozens of community members from Bishop to Lone Pine were recently honored by the County of Inyo for their volunteerism with Health & Human Services' various programs.

In observance of National Volunteer Appreciation Week April 16-22, 2023, Inyo County HHS hosted an appreciation dinner on April 19 to recognize and express gratitude to more than 100 residents for their volunteer work with Aging & Social Services, Public Health & Prevention, and Behavioral Health. It was noted that each day, these community members selflessly give of their time and perform extraordinary acts of service to help provide essential assistance to both senior citizen and youth populations.

The annual event was attended this year by Supervisors Jeff Griffiths, Trina Orrill, Scott Marcellin, and Jennifer Roeser along with County Administrative Officer Nate Greenberg.

"Our fantastic Health & Human Services department and its incredible staff help improve the lives of our citizens on a daily basis. Whether it's providing meals and visits to senior citizens or safe and loving homes for displaced youth, this challenging work wouldn't be possible without the selfless contributions of dedicated community volunteers," said Supervisor Griffiths, a former longtime foster parent. "We're truly blessed to have so many individuals and families so generously stepping up to help care for the wellbeing of our most vulnerable neighbors."

Following are those individuals and families recognized for their dedication and generosity:
